Prism and Lens:
An Explanation of Mary Baker Eddy's Statements

“Science is the prism of Truth, which divides its rays and brings out the hues of Deity.”
(Ret. 35:13–14)

“The lens of Science magnifies the divine power to human sight; and we then see the allness of Spirit, therefore the nothingness of matter.”
(’01 12:22–24)

“The rays of infinite Truth, when gathered into the focus of ideas, bring light instantaneously...”
(S&H 504:23-24)

“Delusion, sin, disease, and death arise from the false testimony of material sense, which, from a supposed standpoint outside the focal distance of infinite Spirit, presents an inverted image of Mind and substance with everything turned upside down.”
(S&H 301:24–29)

The Ordered Steps of Culturing Consciousness

1. concept-building:

getting the concepts clear:

- a) in what they mean through text-analysis
- b) as defined through their relationships

exercise: thinking through the concepts to establish the perfect concept, or “idea”

2. tonality-building:

seeing all the ideas of a synonym tightly interwoven so as to form one overall tone of a synonym, including all ideas exercise: pondering the ideas together to establish the tone of the synonym itself, embracing all ideas

3. consciousness-building:

“thinking about” the synonym melts into a pure consciousness of the synonyms—“thinking from” the synonyms in divinely differentiated consciousness; the divinely objective becomes humanly subjective exercise: mothering the synonyms in consciousness

4. being-building:

consciousness determines being; the consciousness of the seven synonyms for God becomes our only being

The Dimensional Structuring of the Ideas of the Seven Synonyms for God

On the basis of the levels of Science, the ideas of the seven synonyms for God can be dimensionally ordered, showing how the synonyms themselves appear on each level. Considering the levels in the descending way, we can distinguish definite categories:

Science itself:

- I. What is the synonym as itself? i.e., What does the synonym know about itself as itself, as the synonym as such, or as a whole?

divine Science

- II. What is the synonym in its own realm? Here the focus is on those ideas that express the universal realm of the synonym, its whole sphere of self-expression, all that the synonym includes within its own domain.

absolute Christian Science

- III. What is the synonym in relation to its creation? The focus is no longer on the universal oneness of Principle and idea, but on the ideas themselves and how ideas express the infinite relationships within Being.

Christian Science

- IV. In what form does the synonym come to the human? When the divine touches the human, it translates itself in such a way that it is reflected in the human, showing the coincidence of the divine and the human.
- V. What does the synonym do in the realm of its suppositional opposite? When the divine has an impact on the human (IV), whatever is unlike God must simultaneously yield. The healing, redeeming process takes place, as something is corrected in the human.
- VI. What higher attitude does the synonym bring forth in the human? When that which is unlike God in us gradually yields to the divine (V), something better and higher is brought about in the human; we manifest a higher humanhood through an attitude and consciousness that reflects the divine.
- VII. How does the synonym appear when it is not understood? When the entire process of translation (I-VI) is resisted through a lack of understanding, the synonym appears to us in the form of its suppositional opposite. The counterfeit-concept is therefore always the synonym itself, but in misunderstood form.
