From Metaphysics to Science

The ordered steps to finding our oneness with Being (Resolving the “personal I” into the “I Am”)

ascending way

Metaphysics: the contemplation of ideas

1. All is mental (cogito, ergo sum)
2. The mental can be good or evil
3. Thinking in terms of ideas
4. Thinking in terms of the synonyms for God

Science: the contemplation of the infinite One, including all ideas

5. Only the synonyms for God in us can be one with synonym of God
6. Life, Truth, and Love is the only “I” of us
7. The synonyms of God are the only “I” or Ego
8. The “I” is “I AM”

descending way

Science:

8. I AM that I Am
7. This I AM is the “I am” of all
6. This I AM is infinitely individualized as “individual I am”
5. This I AM has no other “I Am,” no “personal I”

Science including metaphysics:

4. This I AM is “the thinker” of us
3. This I AM gives us ideas/makes God’s thoughts and “my” thoughts identical
2. This I AM gives only good thoughts
1. This I AM makes us “the thought of” God and therefore, “I am” (cogitor, ergo sum)

The Dimensional Structuring of the Ideas of the Seven Synonyms for God

On the basis of the levels of Science, the ideas of the seven synonyms for God can be dimensionally ordered, showing how the synonyms themselves appear on each level. Considering the levels in the descending way, we can distinguish definite categories:

Science itself:

- I. What is the synonym as itself? i.e., What does the synonym know about itself as itself, as the synonym as such, or as a whole?

divine Science

- II. What is the synonym in its own realm? Here the focus is on those ideas that express the universal realm of the synonym, its whole sphere of self-expression, all that the synonym includes within its own domain.

absolute Christian Science

- III. What is the synonym in relation to its creation? The focus is no longer on the universal oneness of Principle and idea, but on the ideas themselves and how ideas express the infinite relationships within Being.

Christian Science

- IV. In what form does the synonym come to the human? When the divine touches the human, it translates itself in such a way that it is reflected in the human, showing the coincidence of the divine and the human.
- V. What does the synonym do in the realm of its suppositional opposite? When the divine has an impact on the human (IV), whatever is unlike God must simultaneously yield. The healing, redeeming process takes place, as something is corrected in the human.
- VI. What higher attitude does the synonym bring forth in the human? When that which is unlike God in us gradually yields to the divine (V), something better and higher is brought about in the human; we manifest a higher humanhood through an attitude and consciousness that reflects the divine.
- VII. How does the synonym appear when it is not understood? When the entire process of translation (I-VI) is resisted through a lack of understanding, the synonym appears to us in the form of its suppositional opposite. The counterfeit-concept is therefore always the synonym itself, but in misunderstood form.
